Welsh stand-up, Robin Morgan (CBBC's The Dog Ate My Homework; BBC One's Stand Up At BBC Wales, writer on BBC Two's The Mash Report and the BBC Radio 4's The News Quiz and The Now Show) has announced a 2020 spring tour.

What A Man, What A Man, What A Man, What A Mighty Good Man (Say It Again Now) premiered in Edinburgh last August and will now travel across the UK, over 12 dates. The tour starts in London on Wednesday 5th February and finishes at the Glee Club in Cardiff on Sunday 31 May - the venue where Robin used to work at behind the bar.

Robin Morgan is a father to his son and a son to his father. But what makes a good male role model? What A Man... is about being a 'young woke dad' (not Robin's words, the words of a drunken audience member in 2018), calling out the double standards that set the bar so low to be a 'good dad' and exploring the gender roles forced on our children from conception. What A Man... also explores how male friendship can be improved by occasionally kissing your best friend, and how men need to do better.

'Robin is one of the smartest, nicest and most importantly, funniest people in the biz.'
Rachel Parris

'Robin is a fantastic comedian and the most brilliant gag writer around. I can't wait to watch his career skyrocket over the next few years.'
Ellie Taylor
