

Edinburgh Fringe 2024: Comedy

Bella Hull: Piggie

Pleasance Courtyard, Bunker 3

31st July - 25 Aug @ 9.45pm

‘Hull is clearly a very talented writer and performer.’

★★★★ The Arts Desk

Returning to the Fringe after a triumphant debut, Bella Hull (BBC’s Stand Up for Live Comedy, ITV’s The Stand Up Sketch Show and Comedy Central Live) brings a show about appetites, our lack of control over them, and authenticity.

Bella is a child of the internet. It raised her, fed her, and bathed her every evening in its maternal blue light. But there comes a time when we must reflect on our parents’ mistakes. There’s always been a gap between outer virtue and inner shame. But the internet has turned a gap into a ravine.

Bella knows nothing about ravines, but she knows about inner shame. From binge-eating, to the porn addiction of her ex boyfriend, she’ll look through the lens of her most personal experiences to grapple with the bigger picture. Where do our appetites lead us? Is our gut the most sensible thing to follow? And in a world where sincerity is a trend, are the biggest villains hiding in plain sight?

‘Hull is an excellent writer, perceptive on twenty-something angst and patriarchal oppression...with a wickedly dark undercurrent.’
